Hello!

I´m Paddy, and I´m from Northern Ireland.
Here I´m going to go to Finland with my new friends Minttu, Enni, Nico and Juho.

We went skiing with Sannas class.

I wanted to stay under a roof with Esudo, because it was snowing.

I visited Venla 26.3. .
and we had fun. We went on the ice, to take some pictures. Here is one. I had to sit in the snow. Hrr! I had to sit
there quite a long time,
cause the girls wanted
to take several pictures.

We went to a cottage called Kiilomaja. Someone had made a snowman, and Sanna placed me sitting in a railing. I was a bit affraid that I would fall. We had fun. We were frying sausages in open fire , and went to sauna too, of course.

A photograph of a sauna interior. On the left, a black wood-burning stove with a chimney pipe is mounted against a white wall. The stove has a small logo that says "Narvi". To the right, there are wooden benches. On the top bench, there is a small teddy bear wearing a green hat and a green scarf, and a silver metal pot with a wooden handle. The background wall is made of dark wood.

It's nice to be in sauna, because its warm in there. Why doesn't Sanna
take the snowman
to sauna too?
Maybe the
snowman is too
frozen, so he can't move.

Here's the fireplace! It was so nice and warm, and we used it a lot! What a nice way to spend your evenings, just gazing the flames.

This is how it looks like outside. It's really cold, but also fun outside, because you can play in the snow. still, you should take good clothes with you, because it's not nice to get snow in you neck. It happened to me sometimes,.because I didn't have clothes on.

Teachers here really like to drink coffee!

The cup there was bought from Holland, it has a picture of a windmill in it.

These kids are the 3rd-graders. So they are 9 years old. I visited their class to tell them a little about this Erasmus thing...

And here the second graders showed me their own, self made, easter bunnies. I think the bunnies thought I was one of them!

Here are some skis. They are really into this skiing here in Finland.

A local football club, Fc Santaclaus junior, sent some coaches to tell the students about their work, and they also played some football inside. Unfortunately the pictures of the game weren't g

I visited other kids too, but for some reason they couldn't send the pictures of my visits in time! But I was in one fun birthday party with Minttu and her friends.
